

HUNTER WOMENS CENTRE
INTERNATIONAL WOMENS DAY EXHIBITION
TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please read the terms and conditions outlined below before registering as an exhibitor for the Hunter Women's Centre International Women's Day Exhibition.

Terms and Conditions

1. All exhibits should represent a “story or journey of healing and recovery for women”. This can be your journey or the journey of other women. The theme has been chosen by Hunter Women's Centre to align with its “Forty Years of history celebrating the services and support provided to Hunter Women over this time”.
2. All exhibitors must identify as female.
3. There are no age restrictions for exhibiting as long as the creative work is represented as per point 1.
4. The creative work to be exhibited can be an existing piece; it does not need to be something that has been created just for the exhibition.
5. The creative work can be in any medium or format. Eg it can be a painting, drawing, photograph, sculpture, needlework , macramé , papier Mache , glass, pottery, audio etc
6. The exhibitor will be responsible for delivery of the creative work to the Hunter Women's Centre
7. The exhibitor will also be responsible for the picking up of their exhibit one week after the exhibition is closed. If a creative piece is not collected by this time the exhibitor will be contacted once and if no response the exhibit may be donated to a charity or retained by HWC.
8. While all care will be taken to maintain all exhibits, no responsibility will be accepted by Hunter Women's Centre if any exhibit is damaged or lost. By entering your exhibit and signing the terms and conditions the exhibitor is taking a full understanding of this.
9. All registered exhibits will be subject to a screening process and the Hunter Women's Centre IWD Exhibition Committee will have final discretion as to which creative works are displayed.

Please contact the Centre if you require these terms and conditions explained further before entering your exhibit.

I agree to the terms and conditions outlined above.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

