RELIEF PRINTING USING LINOCUTS

TUTOR: VERA ZULUMOVSKI

DATE: the workshop will be run over two Saturdays on 21 & 28 MARCH 2015 from 10am to 4pm. Participants will need to commit to both days.

COST: $250 including some materials

BOOKINGS: contact Vera at verazulumov@bigpond.com

VENUE: Newcastle Printmakers Workshop
27 Popran Road ADAMSTOWN 2289

Vera Zulumovski has been making linocuts for 25 years. Her work is represented in major public collections including the National Gallery of Australia. She is no stranger to the Hunter Valley. You can view her work online at <http://verazulumovski.com/>

Her Linocuts are unique for their scale, complex imagery and extraordinary cutting technique. During the workshop Vera will discuss her work as well as show examples explaining how the work is created.

This workshop is suitable for beginners or those with prior printmaking experience. During the workshop participants will:

- explore this bold and graphic medium through the creation of their own linocut prints.
- they will learn how to prepare and carve a lino block.
- print in black & white and colour.
- learn how to emboss
- by the end of the second week workshop participants will have produced a small edition of their own design ready for framing.

The tutor will supply the following:

- Silkcut lino 30x30 cm
- Acid free paper for an edition of 5
- All proofing paper
- Use of Vanson inks

Participants are to bring the following:

- Lunch & coffee cup, an apron
- Notepad & drawing materials, pencil, erasers, scissors, sketch books
- A drawing they wish to transfer, the drawing should be suitable for a graphic medium like linocut and be photocopied on A2. Bring several images if you are unsure.
